of Agriculture Co-operating.

W. F. Kumlien Acting Director

Prepared by State Club Leaders
Brookings, S. Dak.

THE SEWING CLUB

The object of the sewing club project is to teach the principals of sewing so that the club members of South Dakota may be able to make their own clothing and help in the repairing of clothes of the family, also to teach something about textiles so they may choose good materials and buy wisely. Some instructions will be given in selection of colors that are becoming to the figure. The sewing project is divided into four, one year courses.

FIRST YEAR: 1. Sewing bag. 2 Kimono night gown. 3. Petticoat or princess slip. 4. Made over garment (one of the following, apron, corset cover or camisole, skirt.)

SECOND YEAR: 1. Combination suit or corset cover. 2. Middy blouse 3. Wash skirt. 4. Made over dress.

THIRD YEAR: 1. Kimono. 2. Wash waist. 3. Woolen or silk skirt. 4. Cotton dress.

FOURTH YEAR: 1. Household article. 2. Paper dress form. 3. Remaking woolen dress. 4. Sport dress. 5. Silk dress.

Girls who have completed the first year may take the second year and those who have completed second year may take third year. After the fourth year has been completed, the club member should be competent to make neat, suitable and attractive garments.
